SHEILA'S STORY

It was August 2006, when the love of my life called me to tell me that he was not coming home. Because he had been away on military deployment with his Army unit, I thought he meant that he was staying on active-duty for another term. The fact was, he was filing for divorce and the reason for calling was to tell me so. My world collapsed! I sat there in disbelief, as I could not comprehend what I was hearing. The emotions that had been bottled up in me for so many years all came rushing like a mad wave. You would think that, after being married to someone for 20 years, you would be treated with more dignity and respect than that. The truth is that alcoholism stole away my husband's sense of responsibility, commitment, loyalty, and moral obligation. The man I married and the father of our only child was not the same person I learned to love in 1986. Alcoholism had changed his way of thinking and his priorities in life.

The end of my marriage was so devastating that I decided to go into therapy to deal with the emotional effects that it was causing in my life. My therapist, a wonderful psychiatrist who had been practicing for decades, suggested that I go to Al-Anon. She stated that the program was very effective and had helped many of her clients deal with the disastrous effects of alcoholism. After prayers for understanding and discernment, my Higher Power spoke to my heart and told me to go to a meeting.

In February 2007, I attended my first Al-Anon meeting, which met at the local Anglican church in my town. The beginner's meeting was very small, and I was the only new person there, so I felt safe. I remember not being able to finish my first sentence because I was crying so much. The pain of losing my husband was so devastating I fell like my world was crumbling. These ladies provided me the opportunity to vent my frustrations, to tell my story as I saw it, and to be honest with myself. I was told that I would be okay.

When I went home that night, I read my welcome packet and I could not put it down. I could see my life through the experiences I was reading about in the pamphlets. It was so reveling, so real, that I could tell the program was for me.

Officer Reports

Alternate District Representative

There is so much experience, strength, and hope in District 6, and I am enjoying visiting groups and meeting new friends. I continue to be amazed by the love and acceptance that I feel in Al-Anon. The spiritual principles of the Al-Anon program have enriched my life greatly, and I am truly grateful. My goal before the next District meeting is to visit some newer groups. Some groups have had changes; please check the meeting list to see if your group's information is correct. Please complete a group change form, and please call the information center, 512-441-8591, (toll-free-1-888-287-2115) and let Kitty know if your information has changed.

I have received some calls from area schools wanting information about Al-Anon and Alateen. I took some Al-Anon Faces Alcoholism 2010 to one school. In my opinion, the Al-Anon Faces Alcoholism magazines are a wonderful public outreach tool.

Most of you know about Al-Anon's monthly podcasts, "Using Al-Anon's Steps in our Personal Lives." These podcasts are free to members, and you can sign up on the Member's Website, www.al-anon.org/members. The Member's Website has a wealth of other information as well. For example, these are the things you can access on the website: a subscription to Al-Anon Faces Alcoholism 2011, the current Al-Anon/Alateen Service Manual, the World Service Conference Summary 2009 "Embrace the Legacies," TEAM, Sponsorship Bookmark, and Historical Background on Sponsorship. In addition, there is information on Group Services, Membership Outreach, Publications, Public Outreach, Inside the WSO, WSO Seminars/Conventions, Forms, Surveys for Members, Submit a Personal Sharing, and a Blog.

If your group is looking for ideas and creative ways to use the CAL, the following link has some good suggestions. Also, on the link are workshop ideas.

DISTRICT 6 MEETING MINUTES April 17, 2010 Hosted by Courage to Change AFG

The meeting was opened by Shelley at 9:03 a.m. with a moment of silence followed by the Serenity Prayer. Shelley read the suggested welcome followed by members reading the Steps, Traditions, Concepts, and Warranties. Prayers were asked for Betty Brown's husband who has cancer.

Introductions were made by going around the room. There were four members there for their first district meeting including one Alateen. It was announced that there would be a CBS TV special on April 25th at 8:00 p.m. The special is the movie When Love Is Not Enough-The Lois Wilson Story.

A workshop was held by our hosting group. An Alateen sponsor meeting was held separately during the same time. After the workshop and sponsor meeting, the donation basket was passed.

Officer and Coordinator reports were given. Rosa, Literature Coordinator, announced that a new service manual would be out in August of this year. The AIS representatives gave their reports. Tom, newsletter editor, announced that the deadline for the fall newsletter is September 4th. Tom also announced that he is a GRANDPA! The morning session adjourned for lunch at 11:57.

The afternoon session resumed at 1:03. Shelley gave a report on the January AWSC meeting. Among the items for the Spring assembly agenda are:

2. The Durable Goods Task Force is to give a presentation on a projector for the Area to use.
3. Task Force report-definition of an experienced Alateen sponsor. The AWSC will recommend to the Assembly that we change the wording of the original motion from "experienced sponsor" to "sponsor" or that we change from "experienced sponsor" to a "sponsor who has been recertified once."

Answer: Study Tradition One in our literature.
4. Our group has submitted a change form for our meeting three times in the last year but we have not seen the change in the meeting schedule (we changed the meeting time). How long does it take for changes to take effect or should we highlight the changes and resubmit the form yet again?

ALATEEN COORDINATOR'S REPORT

The Alateen Conference was held on June 4-6, 2010. There were 20 teens present along with 13 Sponsors. It was an inspiring event for me. What a joy to see these teens, the future of Al-Anon, share their experience, strength and hope. Many thanks for Jayne G. and Lynn L. for bringing their Alateens. Also representing District 6 was Pat E. One of our Alateens, Rebekah R., from Georgetown, was recognized at the conference, as she is about to graduate to Al-Anon. She and another Alateen received the book "How Al-Anon Works". All of us in attendance were offered the opportunity to sign their books and offer them encouragement as they make their transaction to Al-Anon.

A considerable amount of money was contributed by both groups and individual Al-Anon members towards the Kristy Fund. The Kristy Fund is only a District 6 fund that pays 50% of the cost to attend the Alateen Conference. Thanks to all that contributed to this fund, which allowed many of our teens to attend the conference. Another Al-Anon group in the district has offered to help pay the way for an Alateen to attend the AA International that will be held on the 4th of July weekend. These are a couple of the many ways we can support our Alateens, whether we have a group in our immediate location or not. Thanks for your support!

If you are an Alateen Sponsor, Chaperone/Helper/Driver, thank you very much for your service to this vital part of the Al-Anon Fellowship. You are truly changing lives. To all of you who formerly were involved with Alateen, thank you very much for your past service and the contribution you have made. To those of you who are considering to get involved in Alateen service, please give it some serious thought. Talk to any of the Alateen Group Sponsors or Chaperone/Helper/Drivers in the District, and we will tell you how rewarding Alateen service is to us. Please let me know if you are interested in getting involved, whether it is financially or personally and I will help get you started.

Please give me a call or e-mail me if you have any Alateen Sponsor questions or concerns.

I continue to purchase the Al-Anon literature because I really wanted to know more about this destructive disease. I needed to know how to survive the loss, how to manage my life, how to move on.

The Al-Anon program has been there for me when I needed the most help. When everything else seemed impossible, the program taught me to consult my Higher Power. As a result, I have found serenity. My serenity is a beautiful peaceful place in my heart that rejoices with the knowledge that if you trust and keep coming back, you too can find this wonderful feeling of peace and tranquility. I also learned that you continue to grow and flourish when you use your experience and struggles to help someone else in distress. For me it has been liberating to see that I no longer need to be married to be happy. And despite the pain of seeing my dreams shattered by this illness, I can continue to build bigger and better dreams for my child and me.

Sheila

Group Reports

Just for Today AFG Elgin

We're still strong with 10-13 regular members, including a male person who attends regularly. We have our regular meeting on Tuesday at 6:30 to 7:00 pm. We have a speaker on 5th Tuesdays. So we meet early at a restaurant in town for "eating before the meeting". Last week, we had a group conscience meeting where we voted to donate money to the Bastrop Alateen to be used toward financial assistance for the Alateen Conference. We also decided to tape the movie of Lois' story and plan to have a potluck lunch in the future for all who wish to join us. Come join us if you are ever out our way.

In service with love, Nancy K.

Independence AFG

We are strong and healthy. We do Steps on the 1st week and Traditions on the 3rd week. The other 2 weeks are up to the meeting leader. We go in a circle and everyone is given a turn to speak. After the meeting, we go to Jason's Deli for the after meeting. We meet on Friday, 7:00 pm, Red River Church. 45th and Red River in Austin. Sissy S.

Temple New Group AFG

The Temple New Group meets on Thursday at 7:00 pm, located on Main and Down Streets. We are averaging about 13-20. We do a step of the month on the 1st Thursday. The 2nd Thursday is Making Choices, and the other meetings are the chairperson's choice. I have encouraged the members to use our hard cover books and pamphlets and slogans. I always offer to help in any way that I can. Come join us at Christ Episcopal church if you are in the area. Love in Al-anon, Tally R.

Belton Steps & Traditions AFG

The Belton Steps & Traditions group meets at St. Luke's Episcopal Church on Sunday at 8:00 pm. St Luke's is at the corner of Beal and 21st Streets. We are a group that has finally begun to grow at a fast pace. For so many months, we were lucky to have 3 or 4, now we number about 13. A lot of newcomers are coming back and the group is beginning to grow. We are using the hard cover books or The Forum for our meetings. We have at least one Sunday where we study the step or tradition of the month and the rest of our meetings are chairperson's choice.

Love in Al-Anon, Tally R., GR

WACO AIS

The Waco AIS is doing well. We are receiving contributions from other Waco AFG's that allow us to stay "in the black". Our Thursday night meeting at the DePaul Center is well attended and hosted by the HOT AFG. We are selling literature at that meeting as well as getting newcomers. We are still an AIS only and still not LDC.

In service,
Cindy
